A FAMOUS SPORTSMAN

You have probably never heard of Charles Burgess Fry but in the (1).....years of this century, he was the most famous man in England. He became famous while (2).....at university, mainly on (3).....of his achievements in sport. He was, at the same time, captain of the university football,cricket and athletics teams and (4).....the world record for the long jump. He was also a (5).....sports journalist. He was so famous that letters addressed to „Mr Fry, Oxford” were (6).....to him without any difficulty. His college, (7).....it had quite a different name, was (8).....as „Fry's College”.

Some people have (9).....Fry's sporting achievements. They (10).....out that he lived at a time when standards were quite (11).....and it was much easier to (12).....well in several sports. It is certainly true that athletes of that time did not have the totally dedicated (13).....of modern athletes. However, it is only (14).....to judge him(15).....the standards of his own time. There is no doubt that he had extraordinary skill (16).....with an ability to write about sport with style and intelligence.

Zadanie 2. Przeczytaj poniższy tekst i przyporządkuj częściom 2.1-2.5 tytuły oznaczone A.-F. Jeden z tytułów nie pasuje do żadnej części. Wpisz odpowiednie litery w kratki. (0-5 punktów)

2.1 The place where people meet socially in England is a pub. A typical English pub is one of the most wonderful places on the Earth. When you go through the door, you enter a totally different world.

2.2 Comfortable, pleasantly-looking furniture, including sofas as well as armchairs, woollen, patterned carpets everywhere, a great range of delicious drinks and snacks and- first of all- people who make the atmosphere of the place unique.

2.3 Englishmen spend there a lot of their free time. While drinking beer, whisky, or simply soft drinks they chat with others, play darts or pool. An English pub is really a good choice of place for having some fun.

2.4 You can not only relax there and drink some pints of delicious British ale or bitter, but also you can pick up some colloquial phrases and expressions that you would never learn on a language course.

2.5 Pubs throughout England are open from 11 a.m. till 11 p.m., however, Englishmen themselves are not satisfied with it. This custom has its origin in the times of the First World War and since then it has become a tradition, which you are not allowed to change.
