The Miracle of Poinsettia- A Mexican Christmas Legend

In a small village in Mexico, many people believe that a miracle happened.

On Christmas Eve, in the year 1834, people in the village were bringing gifts to the church altar. Maria, a poor peasant girl, had no gift. She stood outside the church watching others as they entered with their gifts.

A lady passed by with a big bunch of flowers in her arms. As she walked, a leaf fell and landed at Maria's feet. She picked it up and thought, "I will take this leaf and it will be my gift".

Maria picked up the leaf, entered the church, and carefully placed the leaf on the altar. There was a gasp from the others who had seen Maria pick up the leaf. For as her fingers separated, Maria was holding a beautiful flower. The beautiful bloom was shaped like a star with bright red leaves.

Word of miracle spread quickly through the village. The gift of Poinsettia came to be known as "The Flower of the Holy Night." Since that time, many houses in Mexico display the Poinsettia at Christmas time. They believe that the beautiful plant brings a blessing that will last all year.

1. What do people continue to believe about the Poinsettia?
 - a. that the plant brings blessing that last all year
 - b. that you will have bad luck if you pick a leaf
